

Daniel Cesar

cesar@slavadvogados.com.br
+55 11 3040 8878

Daniel Cesar, member of the Brazilian Bar Association, São Paulo chapter, has professional legal experience working at renowned law firms focused on Business, Civil and Corporate Law.

Principal Responsibilities

Presently focusing on Business and Corporate Law with emphasis on Agribusiness and Commodity Finance.

Draft, analysis and review of commercial contracts in general, international contracts and financial contracts.

Formalization of collateral agreements (such as pledge, mortgage and fiduciary lien) and personal guarantees, monitoring the perfection of the securities with the relevant Real Estate Registry and Titles and Deed Registry offices.

Participation in structured financial transactions involving the commercialization of agricultural commodities, including the issuance and necessary formalization of instruments backed by titles and guarantees created specifically for agribusiness, such as: Agricultural Product Certificates (CPR), Agricultural Certificates of Deposit (CDA) and Agricultural Warrants (WA).

Review of corporate documents and instruments, such as corporate charters, amendment to articles of incorporation, minutes of shareholders' meetings and shareholders' agreements, and performance of the necessary acts for restructuring of companies and their conglomerates before governmental agencies.

Conducting due diligence procedures aimed at verifying contingencies of targeted companies, as well as the search for assets, rights and properties, drafting strategic reports for the specific evaluation of the client.

Study on relevant matters and draft of legal opinions with regard to civil and commercial obligations arising from different sorts of transactions executed in local and international markets.

Education

Law degree (2016)
Faculdade de Direito de São Bernardo do Campo,
São Bernardo do Campo, Brazil.

Languages

Portuguese
Native speaker

English
Fluent